The University of Montana tennis team, which has shown marked improvement in recent matches, will host Montana State and Gonzaga Saturday on the UM courts.

The Grizzly netters face the rival Bobcats at 10 a.m. and Gonzaga at 2 p.m.

Two of the Big Sky Conference's top individual players, UM's Dirk Miller and MSU's Jerry Peach, will be paired against each other in the morning match. Miller is the conference's second seed at number one singles and Peach is the league's third seed.

The UM team won its fifth straight match by downing Whitworth 9-0 Wednesday afternoon.
